FEBRUARY 18: CRASS ZINE CALL FOR CONTRIBUTORS OPEN MEETING

The CRASS Zine Project is looking for graphic artists, writers, illustrators, editors and contributors of all kinds! We are looking for people who are interested in writing, editing, design and layout, conducting interviews, being interviewed, creating rad artwork and generally sharing their time and talents to create a zine that will help us remember and, through remembering, help us transform our radical communities and our society at large.

Our zine will focus on the legal support structure we're creating to aid arrestees during and after the RNC. Our goal is to produce a document that will strengthen the movement for social justice and a world free of oppression by sharing our experiences working for people arrested en masse for exercising their constitutional rights. We'll also tell our stories and serve as a resource for other communities who are preparing to fight back against state repression the next time they come for us in the streets.

You do not need experience, but energy and passion are a must. For more information, email crasszine@riseup.net or check out <http://www.rncaftermath.org/get-involved/crass-zine-project>. And join us at our next meeting!

Wednesday, Feb. 18th, 8pm
Blue Nile Restaurant
2027 Franklin Ave. E., Minneapolis.

FEBRUARY 22: SECOND CIVIL LITIGATION WORKSHOP

Getting ready to sue the state? The civil litigation working group is hosting its second civil litigation workshop:

Sunday, February 22, 2pm-4:30pm
Bedlam Theatre rehearsal space
1501 S. 6th St., Minneapolis

The workshop will provide information about filing notice of claims forms to let Ramsey County and the cities of Minneapolis and St. Paul know that you might file a civil suit at some point in the future. Come find out about your options for filing a civil suit to address the wrongs you suffered during the RNC. Lawyers from the National Lawyers Guild will be on hand to answer all of your burning questions. Tomorrow evening, the civil lit working group will also be posting information on the "Resources" page (formerly called "Forms & Publications") on the CRASS website.

FEBRUARY 24: NOTICE OF CLAIMS/MARDI GRAS PROCESSION

To follow up our civil litigation workshops, we're delivering notice of claim forms en masse to put the state on notice that we're gonna sue them for what they did to us in the streets during the RNC! Come celebrate Mardi Gras with us at the Minnesota State Capitol at noon on Feb. 24. Bring your beads, your costumes, your notice of claim forms! We made a lot of sweet costumes and decorations today, but more are still needed and we still have some time!

We meet every Sunday, and the time and location of our meetings is posted on <http://www.rncaftermath.org>.

OTHER GROUPS AND THINGS

Coldsnap: Coldsnap is continuing with their regular schedule for open office hours. And they're looking for more volunteers for the office, so email coldsnapoffice@gmail.com if you can help. And don't forget that the jail support hotline number--651.356.8635--is always open for your jail support needs. If you have general questions, please call during normal daylight hours. And check out their series of workshops on legal rights and creating legal support structures through the Experimental College (EXCO, <http://www.excotc.org>) in February, March, and April.

Dave Mahoney's Posse: Dave Mahoney, 23, was temporarily in the US and due to return to his home in England before the new year. He was arrested by the FBI during the Republican National Convention (RNC) in September 2008, and has been charged with 3 counts of aiding and abetting 2nd degree assault and 3 counts of terrorist threats, for an incident that has the loosest connections imaginable to a so called assault. He still has a posse, so check 'em out and show some support: <http://www.helpdavemahoney.blogspot.com/>

Support Dustin: Dustin Matchett-Morales's felony sentencing was on Thursday, February 5. Judge Flynn gave him 60 days in the Ramsey County jail, 5 years of probation, a mandatory DNA sample, a requirement for full-time work or school after release, and restitution for the broken bank windows (the final amount is still to be determined). With credit for good behavior, he can be released from jail on March 12 and not serve the full 60 days. For more information about Dustin, his sentence, his commissary fund, and how to visit him or write him letters, visit <http://supportdustin.wordpress.com> or email supportdustin@riseup.net.

Help the Milwaukee Three: The MK3 (Christina Vana, Dave Mahoney, and Karen Meissner) set up a blog due to the similarity of their cases, but also because of their solid friendship. They hope that, like the RNC 8 and other friends and arrestees, their solidarity with one another can be an inspiration over the stories of police infiltration, informants and cooperation stemming from the RNC. The MK3 share affinity on many levels and enjoy working within their communities towards a life free of all forms of domination. For more information, check out <http://helpmkethree.blogspot.com>.

RNC 8: The RNC 8--Luce Guillen-Givins, Max Specktor, Nathanael Secor, Eryn Trimmer, Monica Bicking, Erik Oseland, Robert Czernik and Garrett Fitzgerald--are still facing four felony charges (two with terrorism enhancements). To get up-to-date information, check out their website at <http://RNC8.org> and sign up for their announcement listserv.

Free the Texas Two: During the Republican National Convention in Minnesota last September, law enforcement conspired to repress people and free speech through brutality in the streets and entrapment and trumped up charges in court. Like many activists before them, the Texas2 fell victim to an FBI informant and provocateur. David McKay and Bradley Crowder of Austin have been held in a federal holding facility in Minnesota since September. David has been released into his father's custody and is back in Texas until his re-trial begins during the week of March 16 while Bradley is still in custody awaiting his sentencing. For more information, visit <http://www.freethetexas2.com>.
